

State Transitions

Queen Mary, University of London

Saturday 28th to Tuesday 31st July 2007

This meeting will be a forum for the exchange of ideas and results on how, and why, oxygenic photosynthesis optimises the activities and interactions of photosystem I and photosystem II.

Contributions are invited from anyone seeking to understand light states in photosynthesis, and transitions between them.

